Welcome to Year 5 Spring Term 2024

Happy New Year to you all and we are looking forward to a very exciting term in Year 5 with lots going on. Please find below useful dates and information about this term. We look forward to meeting you again at the Parent Open Evenings at the end of March and we value your continued support with reading, learning times tables and homework. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact us via email.

usually further practise of maths that we have already covered in class). Quick recal times tables facts is very important so regular practice, little and often, really helps. In Y 5, it is expected that children know all times tables up to 12 x 12. Times Tables Rockstan a great way of developing speedy recall and confidence.Home School DiaryPlease encourage your child to bring this to school daily as it is a great way of record their reading. Children really benefit from lots of reading at home including having sto read to them as well as independent reading.PETuesdays & Wednesdays Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school all week. Yet are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yoga and volleyball.EnglishOur focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to supp this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques.MathsChildren will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies i formal, written calculations. We will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing i ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, up to 12 x 12, is vita order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.HistoryOur History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology , we will be investigating period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover significant achievements of this fascinating civilization.ScienceOur History topic is materials where we will investigate their properties, how they change and we in which they can be separated includ
Important Dates Monday 12th February—Friday 16th February Half Term Holiday Monday 25th and Tuesday 26th March Year 5 Open Evenings Homework Reading: at least 4 times a week Spellings: handed out on a Tuesday for a test the following Tuesday Homework will be handed out every Tuesday to be handed in the following Monday (th usually further practise of maths that we have already covered in class). Quick recal times tables facts is very important so regular practice, little and often, really helps. In Y 5, it is expected that children know all times tables up to 12 x 12. Times Tables Rockstar a great way of developing speedy recall and confidence. Home School Diary Please encourage your child to bring this to school daily as it is a great way of record their reading. Children really benefit from lots of reading at home including having sto read to them as well as independent reading. PE Tuesdays & Wednesdays Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school all week. Yee are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yoga and volleyball. English Our focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to supp this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques. Maths Children will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies formal, written calculations. We will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, how they change and we previd of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will dis	Class Teachers	5AR Mrs Ryan (vicki.ryan@robertmiles.notts.sch.uk) 5M Mr Miller (SMiller@robertmiles.notts.sch.uk)
Monday 25th and Tuesday 26th March Year 5 Open Evenings Homework Reading: at least 4 times a week Spellings: handed out on a Tuesday for a test the following Tuesday Homework will be handed out every Tuesday to be handed in the following Monday (th usually further practise of maths that we have already covered in class). Quick recal times tables facts is very important so regular practice, little and often, really helps. In Y 5, it is expected that children know all times tables up to 12 x 12. Times Tables Rockstar a great way of developing speedy recall and confidence. Home School Diary Please encourage your child to bring this to school daily as it is a great way of record their reading. Children really benefit from lots of reading at home including having sto read to them as well as independent reading. PE Tuesdays & Wednesdays Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school all week. Yee are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yog and volleyball. English Our focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to supp this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques. Maths Children will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies of shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, put o 12 x 12, is vite order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.	Teaching Assistants	Mrs Thacker, Mrs Donovan, Miss Hallett, Mrs White and Mrs Mason
Spellings: handed out on a Tuesday for a test the following Tuesday Homework will be handed out every Tuesday to be handed in the following Monday (th usually further practise of maths that we have already covered in class). Quick recall times tables facts is very important so regular practice, little and often, really helps. In Y 5, it is expected that children know all times tables up to 12 x 12. Times Tables Rockstan a great way of developing speedy recall and confidence.Home School Diary Please encourage your child to bring this to school daily as it is a great way of record their reading. Children really benefit from lots of reading at home including having sto read to them as well as independent reading.PETuesdays & Wednesdays Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school all week. Yee are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yoga and volleyball.EnglishOur focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to supp this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques.MathsChildren will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies formal, written calculations. We will then move onto finding the area and perimeter of shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, up to 12 x 12, is wite order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.HistoryOur History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology , we will be investigating period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover <b< td=""><td>Important Dates</td><td></td></b<>	Important Dates their reading.Children really benefit from lots of reading at home including having sto read to them as well as independent reading.PETuesdays & Wednesdays Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school all week. Yee are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yoga and volleyball.EnglishOur focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to supp this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques.MathsChildren will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies i formal, written calculations. We will then move onto finding the area and perimeter of shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing a ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, up to 12 x 12, is vita order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.HistoryOur History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology , we will be investigating period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover significant achievements of this fascinating dissolving, filtering and evaporation.ComputingWe will put into practice skills of vector drawings to create bookmarks. We will the explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.DTOur project will be exploring mechanisms and creating a toy using cams.PSHEOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me. These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.	Homework	Spellings: handed out on a Tuesday for a test the following Tuesday Homework will be handed out every Tuesday to be handed in the following Monday (this is usually further practise of maths that we have already covered in class). Quick recall of times tables facts is very important so regular practice, little and often, really helps. In Year 5, it is expected that children know all times tables up to 12 x 12. Times Tables Rockstars is
are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yoga and volleyball.EnglishOur focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to supp this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques.MathsChildren will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies of formal, written calculations. We will then move onto finding the area and perimeter of shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing a order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.HistoryOur History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology , we will be investigating period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover significant achievements of this fascinating civilization.ComputingWe will put into practice skills of vector drawings to create bookmarks. We will t explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.DTOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	Home School Diary	Please encourage your child to bring this to school daily as it is a great way of recording their reading. Children really benefit from lots of reading at home including having stories read to them as well as independent reading.
This. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personificat and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as class text which showcases many of these techniques.MathsChildren will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies formal, written calculations. We will then move onto finding the area and perimeter of shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing a ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, up to 12 x 12, is vita order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.HistoryOur History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology , we will be investigating period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover significant achievements of this fascinating civilization.ScienceOur topic is materials where we will investigate their properties, how they change and w in which they can be separated including dissolving, filtering and evaporation.DTOur project will be exploring mechanisms and creating a toy using cams.PSHEOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me. These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	PE	Tuesdays & Wednesdays Please ensure your child has their PE kit in school all week . Year 5 are developing skills in gymnastics and dance as well as learning yoga and volleyball.
formal, written calculations. We will then move onto finding the area and perimeter of shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing a ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, up to 12 x 12, is vita order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.HistoryOur History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology , we will be investigating period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover significant achievements of this fascinating civilization.ScienceOur topic is materials where we will investigate their properties, how they change and w in which they can be separated including dissolving, filtering and evaporation.ComputingWe will put into practice skills of vector drawings to create bookmarks. We will the explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.DTOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	English	Our focus is action and suspense writing and we are learning the story of Beowulf to support this. We will be practicing techniques such as powerful verbs, show not tell, personification and slowing down the action. We will be reading Malamander by Thomas Taylor as our class text which showcases many of these techniques.
period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover significant achievements of this fascinating civilization.ScienceOur topic is materials where we will investigate their properties, how they change and we in which they can be separated including dissolving, filtering and evaporation.ComputingWe will put into practice skills of vector drawings to create bookmarks. We will the explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.DTOur project will be exploring mechanisms and creating a toy using cams.PSHEOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	Maths	Children will be multiplying and dividing numbers using mental arithmetic strategies and formal, written calculations. We will then move onto finding the area and perimeter of 2D shapes. After half term, we will be exploring fractions by converting, comparing and ordering, adding and subtracting. Rapid recall of all times tables, up to 12 x 12, is vital in order to fully access the curriculum - please ensure that your child is practicing regularly.
in which they can be separated including dissolving, filtering and evaporation.ComputingWe will put into practice skills of vector drawings to create bookmarks. We will the explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.DTOur project will be exploring mechanisms and creating a toy using cams.PSHEOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	History	Our History topic is the Ancient Egyptians. Using chronology, we will be investigating this period of ancient history and, using a range of sources of evidence, we will discover the significant achievements of this fascinating civilization.
explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.DTOur project will be exploring mechanisms and creating a toy using cams.PSHEOur PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	Science	Our topic is materials where we will investigate their properties, how they change and ways in which they can be separated including dissolving, filtering and evaporation.
PSHE Our PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies. RE We are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	Computing	We will put into practice skills of vector drawings to create bookmarks. We will then explore Cryptography and code-breaking using simple and complex systems.
explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.REWe are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.	DT	Our project will be exploring mechanisms and creating a toy using cams.
	PSHE	Our PSHE topics this term are Dreams and Goals and Healthy Me . These themes are explored in the classroom during Jigsaw lessons and through whole school assemblies.
French/Music French will be taught by Mrs Alcock and music by Mr Parnell on alternating Fridays.	RE	We are finding out what life is like for Muslim families as they follow the beliefs of Islam.
	French/Music	French will be taught by Mrs Alcock and music by Mr Parnell on alternating Fridays.